Daly City P-40 Pilot Blasts Nip Zero, August 4

U. S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN SOUTH PACIFIC — Setting a Zero aflame during an August 4 battle over Munda, First Lieutenant Grant R. Smith made another score for the 13th Air Force. Lieutenant Smith, a resident of Daly City, California, piloted a P-40.

According to a combat report from the headquarters of Lieutenant General Millard F. Harmon, commanding U. S. Army forces in the South Pacific, Lieutenant Smith's flight saw five Zeros and a shot at the leading plane brought thin black smoke. They scattered and Smith's flight continued to a point just east of Munda where they noted approximately 20 Zeros.

Turning into the enemy's flight with an altitude advantage of 2,000 feet, Lieutenant Smith participated in what became a general dog-fight. He made shots at 5 or 6, then closed on one to within 75 yards, fired a long burst. The Zero flamed furiously as it fell.

Home-Town Team Now In Three-Game Final For Title

Marchbank Diamond To Be Contest Setting

Daly City baseball fans will have their first opportunity to see a home-town team in action in a championship series, next Sunday afternoon, when the Farallone Packers open a three-game final with the Moffat Mantecas at Marchbank park. The contest is slated to start at 2:30 p. m.

Under the management of Charles Norry, the Packers held the lead in Peninsula Summer league play throughout most of the season, until its very close, when they slipped to third place. Entering the playoffs staged by the four top teams, they knocked out the first-place Belmont Merchants with two straight wins and qualified for the finals.

Their opponents in Sunday's game, the Moffat Mantecas, also maintained high standings in the regular season, but played off a tie with Owl Drugs to take fourth place. They proceeded to eliminate San Mateo in their first playoff series, closing with a fantastic score of 15 to 10, last Sunday.

Although Manager Norry was handicapped in that other parks in the semi-pro circuit make an admission charge, while receipts at the local diamond are by donation only, he was able to arrange the series for Daly City. Merchants and others interested in the sport have given generously in support of the championship contests, he has announced.

Preceding the championship tilt, the Farallone Juniors will have a game, starting at 11:30 a. m. Last week the boys won a close 2-1 decision from the San Francisco Boys' club.

War Council Sets Drill For Tonight

Members of the Daly City Civilian War Council will meet at 7:30 sharp this evening, September 16, to hold a control center drill, the first in many weeks. Following the test, the regular business session of the defense organization will be held.

Daly City was one of the two cities listed by the Army, recently, as being in Zone 1, a prime target area. The county war council expressed dissatisfaction with this division and considers San Mateo county as a whole definitely a prime target area. Due to the heavy fogs on the ocean this county is still vulnerable not only from attack from air but also commando or nuisance raids, which are well within the realms of possibility, according to Theodore M. Lilienthal, county director.

Town Of Colma Buys $1,000 Bond

Purchase of another $1000 War Bond was authorized by the city council of the Town of Colma at its regular meeting, Monday morning, bringing the municipality's investment in the bonds up to $6000. Mayor Paul Delucchi presided over the session, with Councilmen Mattrup Jensen, Fred Lane and Bartley Flynn also in attendance.

Chief of Police Joe Cavalli, who is seriously ill at his home, was granted a 30-day leave of absence. Plans were also made to appoint a deputy to take over duties of the office.

Councilman Jensen reported that extension of sewer connections to portions of Colma not now served had been taken up with county officials and action was expected soon. He pointed out that present conditions constitute a menace to public health and should be abated.

Local Police Recover Stolen Automobiles

Chief James G. Reardon reported three stolen car cases, this week. In all instances the local department was able to affect the return of the automobiles.

Last Tuesday, September 7, Reardon received word from Charles E. Tovee, chief of police at Chico, California, that a 1936 blue Dodge sedan registered to Charles Aiello, 3241 San Jose avenue, had been found abandoned on a Chico street.

The local police contacted Mrs. Aiello here in Daly City and learned that the car had been stolen from Aiello at Davis Junction while he was having a cup of coffee enroute back to Camp

Could Daly City Be That Proverbial Turnip?

Getting blood out of Daly City seems to be something like getting blood out of the proverbial turnip if the first week's results in the drive to recruit donors is any criterion. One, meaning one, lone individual called in to answer the appeal made by the Daly City War Council, last week.

Of course, maybe hundreds of willing donors were just waiting until this week to signify their intention to contribute. There are two places to sign up: the police department, RAndolph 4212, or

Auxiliary Police Squad Finishes Training Course

Six members of Squad No. 3, Daly City Auxiliary police, have successfully completed training in the general course required by the national Office of Civilian Defense, according to R. L. Crane jr., chairman of instruction for this area.

Those taking the training included Edward Kimmerling, Anton Francesconi, Earl Bergeron, Edward E. Quinn, William E. Thomson, and Captain Sidney Watt.

Draft Board Closes To Take Inventory

At the request of Colonel Kenneth H. Leitch, state director of Selective Service, Daly City Draft Board No. 103 suspended classification action as of midnight, last night, September 15, in order to complete an inventory of the classification and status of all registrants.

While the vast inventory is being made the local office, located in the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue, will be closed to the public except from the hours of 3 to 5:15 p. m. daily, except Sunday. The inventory is to be completed not later than September 30.

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk, pointed out that if the local office completes its inventory before September 30, normal office hours will be resumed, earlier.

Colonel Leitch said that until the inventories are completed it will not be known how many California fathers will be inducted in October, if any.

On September 9 more than sixty selectees were inducted by Daly City Draft Board No. 103, for duty with the armed forces. The San Francisco reception cen-

You Want To Help?

Daly City responded generously in the recent drive to furnish a day room at the post. Now, two items are needed for the barber shop up there: an ice box and a dressing table.

Any one who has either or both of these items and would like an opportunity to give a hand, directly, to the servicemen may contact them by notifying The Daly City Record, RAndolph 3215.

"The boys will really appreciate it!", says Sergeant Joe Stone, who has been trying, unsuccessfully up until now, to secure the needed ice box and dressing table.

It's Patriotic Duty To Complete Schooling

"The most patriotic thing boys and girls of high school age can do to help in the present national crisis is to return to their classrooms and complete their educations," said Principal James Ferguson in urging that all students resume their studies at Jefferson Union high school, Monday, September 20. "The Army and the Navy and all educational leaders urge the youth of our land to put education above temporary financial gain," Ferguson remarked.

Classrooms and physical education plants at Jefferson have been completely renovated for the opening of the fall term. All students are to be on hand by 8:15 a. m. sharp.

Incoming students who have never attended Jefferson high before may register, today and tomorrow, September 16 and 17, at the high school office. Hours are 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 3 p. m. Likewise, those with special curriculum problems may iron them out on those days. Roy J. Gale will be in charge as counsellor.

R. L. Crane jr., superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School district, reports that 1,262 pupils enrolled on the opening day of grammar schools, Monday, September 13. This figure is higher than the enrollment total of fall, 1942.

Crocker Chapter Takes Over At Service Club

Currently handling hostess duties at the Daly City Servicemen's club, 6201 Mission street, are members of the Ladies Auxiliary to Company No. 4, D. C. F. D.

Next week, beginning Sunday, September 19, Crocker Chapter No. 382, O. E. S., and Crocker Chapter, F. and A. M. will be in charge. During their week a social is to be held on Saturday night, September 25.

Council To Meet Commissioners

A move was made to get down to "brass tacks" on the Daly City Civil Service ordinance at Monday night's council meeting when the councilmen voted to hold a special meeting, Monday, September 20, 8 p. m. with the fire commissioners to discuss the ordinance as it relates to firemen. Another feature to be discussed will be the pay for city employees answering fire alarms after their regular working hours.

It was decided to wash the city streets in the main business section every Saturday morning in an attempt to keep down the present fly and flea menace. If this measure does not bring about improvement in the situation it is planned to use the street cleaner on Sunday morning as a last resort.

Under communications the councilmen and city officials were advised of the next meeting of the Peninsula division, League of California Municipalities to be held, Thursday, September 23, in San Jose. Most of the official family signified intention of attending. The main address of the evening will be "Important Problems Confronting California Cities."

The city clerk, B. C. Ross, was instructed to inform the fire

Daly City Theatre Offers Action Film

Loaded with action, suspense, beautiful showgirls, smart songs, gay, fast-moving dialogue and a thrilling-chilling mystery, Hunt Stromberg's "Lady of Burlesque," which stars Barbara Stanwyck and introduces a talented and handsome newcomer in Michael O'Shea, opens tonight at the Daly City theatre.

From Gypsy Rose Lee's best-seller exposing backstage burlesque life, "G-String Murders," James Gunn, a young script writer new to Hollywood, has fashioned this punchy, briskly-paced murder story in the colorful atmosphere of show life. Barbara Stanwyck plays the burlesque queen, Dixie Daisy, who is the star not only of the show but also of two daring murders committed backstage during performances at the Old Opera House. Since excitement is keyed to a high point, accusations fall upon several suspicious members of the troups including Dixie who, with the help of Biff Brannigan, comic of the show, sets a trap to catch the villainous murderer and vindicate herself. Biff offers his assistance because he is very much attracted by Dixie and, when she spurns him, he becomes more anxious to be friendly with her.

Enhancing the story is a smart entertainment program studded with gorgeous chorines who present a stunning girly-girly burlesque show in gay song and dance. A real treat is in store for you when star Barbara Stanwyck lets her hair down and sings a song especially written for the picture, "Play It On the G-String," and goes to town in an amazing dance routine.

This new Barbara Stanwyck is a refreshing, bright personality who is establishing herself surely as one of the most versatile Hollywood actresses. Michael O'Shea reveals an unusual talent and in this reviewer's opinion is headed for immediate stardom as a result of his performance in "Lady of Burlesque." Much of the praise accorded "Lady of Burlesque" should go to Director William Wellman, who did an outstanding directorial job.

Barbara Stanwyck Plays Burlesque Queen

News of all local schools will again make its appearance in the columns of the Daly City Record, each week, now that the fall term is under way.

Canning Clinic Over

Jefferson Union high school's summer canning clinic was concluded, Monday, September 13, when five local women canned 55 1-2 quarts of corn, apple sauce, pears, and beans. Mrs. Elsa Bogosian, who has handled arrangements for the clinic during the summer months, reports that, in spite of the comparatively small number of housewives who made use of the facilities, both participants and instructors felt that the program had been very successful. Instructors were supplied through the San Mateo junior college adult center, as were the free pressure cookers.

On September 8 Mrs. Margaret Lange, Mrs. Minnie Shuback, Mrs. Marie Gehrig, Mrs. Helen Greig, Mrs. Dorothy Kramer, Mrs. Lucile Crews, and Mrs. Rose Davis were the women using the pressure cookers. Beets and beans were the foods canned that day.

On Monday evening, September 13, Mrs. Dan Kennedy, 184 Santa Cruz avenue, parked her 1937 black Ford sedan in front of 6241 Mission street while she attended the Daly City theatre. When she came out of the show, the car was gone.

Police at the local department immediately notified the San Francisco stolen car detail and shortly thereafter the car was stopped by an officer from Taraval station at Alemany boulevard and Junipero Serra boulevard. It was returned to Mrs. Kennedy and the thief, a juvenile, was booked on 503 of the California Vehicle Code.

Local police received word, Tuesday morning, September 14, on a car they have been trying to trace since Wednesday, September 8. It belongs to R. W. Hyder, 138 Santa Cruz avenue, and was picked up at 2:15 a. m., September 14, at Auburn, California. Driving it at the time were two boys, who are being held for questioning by the Daly City police. The owner was notified of the recovery of the car.

Donors may choose either the San Mateo County Blood Bank or the American Red Cross Blood Donor Service. The important thing is to secure the vital plasma for the boys overseas and for possible civilian casualties here at home.

Local Couple Hurt In Sunday Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griffin, 730 Niantic avenue, were injured in an automobile accident, Sunday, September 12, at 1 a. m. Griffin got out to fix the towe rope between the two cars he and his wife were driving home when a third car, driven by Dr. Reuben Robert Kallman, San Francisco, crashed into the car being towed and caught Griffin between it and the lead car, fracturing his left leg and several fingers.

Mrs. Griffin received a severe cut on the face which required 21 stitches at Alemany Emergency hospital. Griffin, who needed further medical attention, was taken to Community hospital at San Mateo. The Company No. 1 first aid truck rushed the Griffins to Alemany hospital.

Property damage to all three cars resulted as well as the personal injuries.

The council accepted the resignation of William A. Degliantoni from the fire department. D. Colloty, Company No. 1, D. C. F. D., was reinstated by unanimous vote.

Two Daly City lots, without improvements, were authorized to be sold by the County of San Mateo for delinquent taxes.

Councilmen present were Mayor A. J. Gaggero, John J. Fahey sr., Edmund Cavagnaro, and Eugene V. Lynch. City officials in attendance were A. J. Bodien, building inspector; F. E. By a resolution of the group, the name of the body in charge of local war activity was changed from Colma Civilian Defense Council to the Colma War Council. City Clerk E. A. Weisenburger was ordered to continue holding up payment for road repair work on E street until such time as it is satisfactorily completed.

CANNED AT HOME and RATION FREE

Millions of American families are going to eat better this winter because the old-fashioned custom of "putting up" fruits and vegetables has come back for the duration.

But in canning vegetables, don't rely on old-fashioned methods. Be safe as well as thrifty. Ask the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture or your State Extension service. Non-acid vegetables should not be canned at home unless prepared in a pressure cooker.

Eat plenty of fresh vegetables while they're available. If you decide to can the surplus from your Victory Garden, or vegetables bought in the market, be sure the methods you use are modern—and be sure they're safe.

Joy Boys Seek New Memberships

A membership contest for the Job Boys Sunday school class is currently being held at Grace Church of the Nazarene under the direction of the teacher, Joseph Straughan. Every boy who brings in a new member gets a bottle of "bug juice." The new recruit gets a similar treat. ("Bug juice" is berry juice—if that makes sense to you.)

When the class is back up to quota again, a big picnic is planned. To the contest winner (the boy who brings in the largest number of recruits) will go a 1 1-2 foot bottle of "bug juice."

SEND THEM BACK TO SCHOOL

With schools throughout California soon to reopen, the question arises: How many of the 'teen-age youngsters now working will return to the classroom?

It is not easy to drop a well-paying job and go back to school. But it was never more important that this be done.

The contribution made to the war effort by our youth has been notable. They have helped to fill the yawning gaps in our industrial and agricultural armies. But that does not mean they should continue to work on a full-time basis. Let them work part-time and continue their education. The youngster who stays out of school for a year finds it hard to go back and swing into the routine of school life. Chances are, if he drops out, he won't return to the classroom at all.

Lack of proper education is not all that results from the premature quitting of school. Another frequent effect is juvenile delinquency. According to educators, when the 'teen-ager finds himself with plenty of money and no school guidance, he tends to drift into anti-social activities and frequently into crime. School ties are doubly essential in these days when the home influence is weakened by the fact that in frequent instances both parents work and children are left largely on their own.

So send them back to school. Don't let them sell their future for the dollars they can earn now. It's worth much more than that. We cannot allow the urgent need of the moment to blind us to the greater basic need—the proper education and guidance of our youth.

REAL ESTATE BOOM

"An incipient real estate boom is in the making in some sections of the country." So declared the heads of three federal agencies concerned with housing and home financing.

They urge the prospective home buyer to obtain conservative valuation before buying, and to refuse to pay more than that amount.

These bits of advice are well worth heeding. It is all too easy for the wage-earner whose income is now substantial, to plunge into the purchase of a home without asking himself these two vital questions: 1. If my income should be reduced, could I continue to pay the monthly installments? 2. If I were forced to sell under less favorable conditions than now exist, what price could I reasonably expect the property to sell for?

Property values, as well as the actual condition of a house that has already been lived in, are difficult for the average man to determine. So before entering into any agreement, the prospective buyer should seek unbiased advice from a well-informed source. A conference with the real estate expert in your local bank is good insurance against unwise buying. He will not only help you finance your purchase when you have found the right place, but he is in a position, through his experience, to point out the most common mistakes made in acquiring a home.

Buying at inflated prices results in frequent mortgage foreclosures and the loss of savings put into the property, contributes toward depressions and a general undermining of public morale.

So, if you're planning to buy a home, do your part and help to keep real estate prices "on the ground."

AND DON'T FORGET IT

"I believe that in this country our political leaders have too long discounted and discredited the profit incentive as an instrument of human progress. In the postwar world our government will have to nourish, rather than merely tolerate, the profit motive. And I have no doubt that it will do so."—Emil Schram, president, New York Stock Exchange.

Native Sons Set Up War Bond Booth

El Carmelo Parlor No. 256, Native Sons of the Golden West, has established a War Bond Booth at the office of W. C. Lasswell and company, 6154 Mission street. They invite the public to purchase bonds there, this month. Bud Lycett will be on hand to help purchasers.

ITALY SURRENDERS

Italy has surrendered, and tired history records the collapse of another human folly. Once again it is proved that the "mighty" men of yesterday are the fools of today. It just takes time to prove it—time and blood, and misery, and sweat, and tears, and sacrifice.

The Bagdolio government saw the handwriting on the wall, and in the sky, and in the faces of the Italian people. It took the only way out—it surrendered.

Overnight the whole complexion of the war has changed. There is no longer a question as to whether we have established a second front. We have. The back door to the Balkans is now open. The approach to Greece has been greatly simplified. The avenues of invasion into France have been shortened.

Once we drive into the Balkans, the German position in Southern Russia will become untenable. In fact, it is more than likely that the Nazis will increase the tempo of their retreat in anticipation of just such a drive.

The Berlin radio charges that Italy's surrender is "high treason" in the defense of Europe. What it really meant is that the Italians gave up before Hitler had a chance to completely double-cross them.

Italy's withdrawal again highlights the question—Where is Mussolini? If he is still a prisoner of the Bagdolio government, there is reason to believe he is now a "changed man." No longer will he strut in his balcony before the cheering crowds. Now he must face a court of justice. Worst of all, the millions he misled must face the long hard road back to national dignity and decency.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

LARRY LESUEUR, correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting Company, was in the Soviet Union from October 1941 to October 1942. In October 1941 the Germans had almost reached Moscow. In October 1942 they were being driven out of Stalingrad. Mr. Lesueur considers these twelve months to have been of crucial importance, not only for the Russians, but for the entire course of the war. He writes about them in his book "12 Months That Changed the World."

LARRY LESUEUR

His assignment in Russia was not to make long reports on military strategy. Rather, his job was to pack into his daily broadcasts fresh, colorful and revealing bits of news and human interest material which would help Americans to know what life was like in the Soviet Union in wartime. He follows the same technique in his book. He has a reporter's gift of looking and listening; he reports vividly and clearly what he saw and heard.

Among the many people with whom he talked was Major Valentine Grizadubova, one of the three women who wear the gold star of a "hero of the Soviet Union" and the only woman to have led an all-male squadron of heavy night bombers. "There are many women in the Soviet Union who are fighting for their country," she told him. "They are especially good in the air. The youngest girl in the Red Air Force is seventeen, and the oldest is a woman navigator of forty-five."

The barricades had been removed in Moscow long before Lesueur left, but every morning the streets were filled with great piles of wood, brought in by voluntary woodchoppers for the purpose of heating houses for which there was no longer coal. One day the entire corps de ballet turned out to help load wood on the trucks at the riverside. The next day it was announced from the stage at the ballet that the premiere ballerina, Messerer, was unable to appear. She was too stiff from hauling wood. That gives us an idea of what the Russians mean by an all-out war!

"Angel of the Navy" by Joan Angel; "The WAACS" by Nancy Shea; "Yes Ma'am" by Auxiliary Elizabeth R. Pollock—these are a few of the new books that tell how American women are going to war. One of the most amusing—as well as informative—of such books is "All-Out Arlene" by H. I. Phillips (soon to be made into a motion picture) which tells of Arlene Applegate who left her good job as model secretary for the advertising agency of Batson, Munch & Twiggerfizz, to join the Waacs because, she figured, the only way to win a war was to get in there and fight.

"Paris—Underground" by Etta Shiber, the true story of two women who helped some 200 English soldiers to escape out of France, will be an October selection of the Book-of-the-Month Club. The Club is also sending its members for the same month "C/O Postmaster" by Corporal Thomas R. St. George. Corporal St. George is with the American forces in Australia, and his book is a colorful and humorous account of his experiences in the army.

Funeral Services For Eugene Lucey

Funeral services were held, Monday, for Eugene Lucey, pioneer Daly City resident, who passed away, last Thursday at his home, 1178 Brunswick street, following a lengthy illness. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Annette Drury, Daly City, and Mrs. Frances McGouirk, Burlingame, and a son, Eugene Lucey jr., Buringame.

The services were held at a San Francisco mortuary chapel, thence to Our Lady of Perpetual Help church for a mass at 10 a. m. Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery.

During the early days of Daly City's development, Lucey held posts as tax collector, police officer and marshal. He was one of the original volunteer firemen. He was a native of California and during his 35 years residence in Daly City was known throughout the county for his public activities.

Daly City Branch Sets High Record

Daly City placed sixth in the first roll of honor among branches of the Bank of America in California in the current staff War Bond drive, meeting 11 per cent of their quota by August 13, according to The Bankamerican, official publication of the statewide organization.

In the first two weeks of the campaign the statewide sales of E, F, and G bonds averaged 23 per cent higher than in the comparable two weeks of the previous month.

Fritz Erickson, manager of the Daly City branch, expressed keen satisfaction with the record set by Daly City. "Our objective now is to keep and better this standing," he said.

Among recent large purchasers of bonds at the local banks was the Standard Oil Company of California which bought $3,000 worth of War Bonds from Colma branch, and $4,000 worth from Daly City branch. The purchases were made by a representative of the San Francisco office, Marketing division.

In the meantime, San Francisco and the Bay area celebrated the downfall of Italy by throwing their full weight behind the nation's 15 billion dollar Third War Loan Drive which opened September 9.

With the Allied attack in full swing, Americans everywhere pledged their dollars to "back the attack"—to keep pushing the fight forward by putting their dollars in War Bonds.

Charles R. Page, chairman of the Northern California War Finance committee, directing the War Bond drive in this territory, struck the keynote when he urged Californians to let Italy's surrender serve as an inspiration for greater War Bond investment than ever, rather than to let it slow down the drive.

Senior Air Raid Wardens Will Meet

Harry Melicker reminds all senior air raid wardens of their meeting tomorrow night, September 17, 8 o'clock at the city hall. He urges a good turnout as many important matters are to come before the group.

The Daly City Civilian War Council, this week, expressed their sincere appreciation to the wardens for their help with the recent tin drive. "Their response was wonderful," said Director A. J. Bodien.

ON VACATION

William P. Bolger, desk man for the Daly City Police department, left Tuesday, September 14, for a week's vacation. Sergeant Ricco Benedetti returned yesterday, September 15, after a vacation. Bolger will return to his job, Monday, September 20.

LITTLE POISON—U. S. fighting words for our .37 m.m. gun used extensively in anti-tank warfare. To keep the "poison" coming to Hitler's mechanized divisions all of us must do our best and keep on buying War Bonds. Then buy an extra $100.00 Invasion Bond in September.

Auxiliary Members Attend Installation

Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion auxiliary, was well represented at the Twenty-sixth District, American Legion auxiliary, installation, Friday night, September 10, at Burlingame Legion hall. Mrs. Marce Trier, of the local unit, was honorary sergeant-at-arms.

Installing officer was Mrs. Florence Chess, San Mateo, past department president. President of the district is Mrs. Beatrice Camgros, Burlingame. Among other officers installed was Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, Daly City, who went in as marshal.

Saturday Party Successful Event

The summer recreation program at Lincoln park and General Pershing school came to a close, Saturday morning, September 11, with a party on the playground, sponsored by the Women's Civic club. Pop-corn balls were prepared by members of the organization for the youngsters. There was a good turnout.

Women's Civic club members who assisted at the festivities were Mrs. Marie Gehrig, Mrs. Marie Poole, Mrs. Dora Holmberg, Mrs. Lillian Cavagnaro, Mrs. Rose Watson, Mrs. Martha Linden, and Mrs. Anne Eason. Supervisor at the playground and indoor center during the closing weeks of the season was Mrs. Margaret Clark.

Studebaker Has Long-Range Policy

One executive at the Studebaker corporation, at South Bend, Indiana, E. L. Chevraux, hires only chief engineers.

"By that is meant that every youngster we put to work in the engineering department is considered potentially as the top man," Chevraux explains. "We measure his character from that standpoint."

Seeking to safeguard Studebaker quality, Chevraux combs high schools for these prospective chief engineers as earnestly as a football coach hunts fleet halfbacks. Instead of triple-threaters, however, he demands students who excel in the three A's of personality—ability, ambition and attitude.

Chevraux is now starting his eighth year of a program designed to uncover exceptional talent and expresses scant patience with suggestions that such activities should be curtailed during wartime.

"Too many employers accept the war as a period for the suspension of all efforts to build for the future," he says. "They hire almost the first person who comes along and let the problem slide.

"The boys now entering the armed services rather than a profession aren't going to be gone forever. Personally, I'd like to have something to say about what they do when they come back."

Wardens Really Get Things Done!

When it comes to getting things done, Daly City's air raid wardens are right there!

Nobody is more enthusiastic about them than R. L. Crane jr., Junior Red Cross chairman. On Sunday, September 12, they met at his home and in 2 1-2 hours assembled one hundred knot boards for the rehabilitation program of the American Red Cross. The boards, to be used at Bay area hospitals, will be turned over to the San Mateo County chapter, American Junior Red Cross.

Men taking part in Sunday's production record were J. A. Surber, V. Darnell, Louis Anti, Glenn Wilkes, T. Laramie, P. Ramer, Harry Melicker, and John Emerson.

The success of the recent tin can pickup in Daly City was made possible by the cooperation of the air raid wardens.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Steve Brosnan, 778 San Diego avenue, enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Corps, recently, and is now at Buckley field, Colorado, training to be a pilot. He was formerly employed at the telephone company.

His wife, June, remains in Daly City.

Aviation Cadet David A. Grenier, son of Mrs. Mary Grenier, 1130 Brunswick street, Daly City, has just begun the Army's Primary Flight Training course at Thunderbird field No. 1, Glendale, Arizona.

Aviation Cadet Grenier is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school and entered the armed forces February 16, 1943, at San Francisco. He was formerly employed at the Sausalito Shipbuilding company.

Technical Sergeant Edward H. Buckley, 3019 San Jose avenue, at an advanced base in North Africa, was among members of the Air Corps who helped carry paratroops to Sicily on the morning of the recent invasion.

Roy Giusti, well-known Daly City football star, now at the San Antonio Aviation Cadet center, San Antonio, Texas, writes to say "thanks" for The Record.

"Naturally, like many of the others I have a longing to get back to 'the old gang,' once more, but it is something that will have to wait until final victory is achieved."

Giusti expects to be at the San Antonio classification center for several weeks and from there will probably be sent to navigators' school at Ellington field, Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Giusti, Daly City.

Johnny Barnes, once a member of Sea Scout Ship No. 149, Daly City, is now recuperating at a Maryland hospital after seeing action in several major overseas battles. Barnes is with the U. S. Navy.

The Armored school, of which Brigadier General J. A. Holly is commandant, trains the thousands of officer and enlisted technicians who perform the specialist tasks in the Army's mobile, powerful armored divisions. One of the largest technical schools in the world, it graduates several times more students each year than the largest civilian universities.

The Wheeled Vehicle department trains the student mechanics in the intricacies of keeping peeps and jeeps, trucks and scout cars rolling in combat.

San Mateo County Short On Housing

Official figures just released by the regional offices of the National Housing agency prove true the claim that San Mateo county has the most acute housing shortage in the state of California. The percentage of applicants for family units for whom accommodations were found were as follows:

San Francisco	25.0
Eureka	17.4
Alameda-Oakland	15.9
Los Angeles	14.3
San Bernardino	12.9
San Jose	11.1
Stockton	6.8
San Diego	5.6
San Mateo county	4.9

"Do the people of San Mateo county want this district to remain at the bottom of the list?" asks Louis Lengfeld, manager of the War Housing Center. "If not, please help us get out of the cellar position by discouraging the migration to this community of anyone not directly connected with the war effort and by listing all vacancies with us so that they may be rented to essential war workers."

INVASION! . . . This is it! . . . Mighty America is poised! . . . Will you be able to say: "I personally put my full strength into the knock-out blow"?

THE Third War Loan is on. To carry the war home to our enemies, with killing fury, calls for an added 15 billion dollars, quickly.

Your government merely asks you to lend your money. With every dollar of wealth in this richest of all nations as security!

Mother, Father—you can't lose! But your boy—or your neighbor's boy—can! Your country can! Unless you put every ounce of your inspired strength into this final punch!

Your boy, or your neighbor's boy, knows what the fruits of this devastating Allied invasion will be—the months, the dollars, the American lives it will save. And, across the miles, he is pleading—buy more and still more War Bonds—today!

Last Call for Home Canning

We always have wound up the canning season at home by making sauerkraut. Probably the reason is because the late cabbage as a rule seems so much better and is so firm.

Homemade sauerkraut makes me think of all the good-tasting Fall and Winter dinners we are going to have. Our favorite is sauerkraut with weiners or spareribs—and dumplings (made right on top the kraut), sliced onions in vinegar, with baked apple and gingerbread for dessert.

TO MAKE KRAUT IN JARS

Mix shredded cabbage with salt, using ½ tablespoon salt to each quart cabbage. Pack firmly into sterilized glass jars, fill with cold water, adjust covers fairly tight. Store in comfortably warm place (75° to 85° F.) and where possible overflow of liquid will do no harm. If scum forms, remove it. The kraut will ferment or cure for a few days, and will be ready to use in a month. At that time, drain off juice, heat to boiling, pour over kraut again, and seal tight. Do not process.

SAUERKRAUT

½ lb. (⅓ cup) cooking salt

Select firm, mature heads of cabbage. Remove outer leaves; wash well; quarter, remove core; slice very fine. Mix 5 lbs. (about 7½ qts.) shredded cabbage with 2 oz. (3½ tbsps.) salt; place in deep crock or tight wooden keg; tamp down firmly with wooden masher. Repeat until all cabbage is used. Press down, cover with clean white cloth, then with plate or round wooden board small enough to fit down inside crock; weight down with a clean rock to keep cabbage covered with brine that forms. Keep in a warm place, 75° to 85° F. Inspect each day; remove scum with spoon; rinse cloth in clear water.

Kraut will be "cured" (appearance and taste will tell) in 10 to 20 days, depending upon amount of cabbage and temperature.

Kraut may be left in crock or keg all winter, in a cold celler or basement (take care to remove any scum) or it may be canned from 1 to 3 months after curing. To can: drain off juice, pack cold kraut into hot sterilized fruit jars to ½ inch from top; heat juice to boiling, pour over kraut, seal, store in cool dark place. Do not process.

NOTE.—Cooking salt is salt without a filler and comes in bags.

Peaches and Plums Combine with Pleasure

By BETTY BARCLAY

WHAT'S better than peaches? What's better than plums? Well, the only thing we can suggest is a combination of the two. There's no doubt about it — when these two fruits get together the result is a real triumph in flavor. Combine them in jams, combine them in jellies . . . and you will have one of the most popular spreads in your jam cupboard.

Homemakers know how invaluable a well stocked jelly shelf can be in a busy household. Use sugar now and later you may create many delicious desserts by the use of jams and jellies — with no further sweetening required.

Modern recipes assure you of a perfect product every time — with never a failure to mar a summer day. More hours in the sunshine and less at the stove, too. Secure half-again more glasses and the rich flavor of fully sun-ripened fruit. Give these recipes a hand:

Ripe Peach and Plum Jelly
(Makes about 7 medium glasses)
3 cups juice
4 cups sugar*
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare juice, cut in pieces (do not peel or pit) and crush about 2 pounds fully ripe peaches and 1 pound fully ripe plums. Add ¾ cup water, bring to a boil, and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. (If there is a slight shortage of juice, add small amount of water to pulp in jelly cloth and squeeze again.)

Measure sugar into dry dish and set aside until needed. Measure juice into 3- to 4-quart saucepan.

Place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar, stirring constantly. Continue stirring, bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once.

*2 cups light corn syrup may be substituted for 2 cups of the sugar.

Ripe Peach and Plum Jam
3½ cups prepared fruit
4½ cups sugar*
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, peel about 1½ pounds fully ripe peaches; pit and grind or crush thoroughly. Pit (do not peel) about 1 pound fully ripe plums. Cut in small pieces and crush thoroughly. Combine fruits.

Measure sugar into dry dish and set aside until needed. Measure prepared fruit into a 5- to 6-quart kettle, filling up last cup or fraction of cup with water if necessary.

Place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar, stirring constantly. (To reduce foaming, ¼ teaspoon butter may be added.) Continue stirring, bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 8 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

*2¼ cups light corn syrup may be substituted for 2¼ cups of the sugar.

Traffic Perils Now On Increase

With schools opening for the fall term, children are again exposed to traffic perils made increasingly dangerous by wartime driving conditions, warns the California State Automobile association in an appeal to drivers of motor vehicles.

School children this year will have less protection against traffic perils than usual because of war manpower demands on police departments, the automobile association stated, calling on motorists to drive with extreme care wherever children may be present and to stay well within the legal speed limit of 15 miles per hour in school zones.

The motorists' organization urges cooperation with members of the school safety patrol in yielding the right of way upon signal by the patrol boy and otherwise to assist him in his guidance and protection of schoolmates at traffic intersections.

Where school buses are stopped to take on or discharge passengers, a special obligation is imposed on the motor vehicle driver by state law. The motorist, meeting or passing a halted school bus, must come to a stop, see that the way is clear and then proceed with due caution at a speed not greater than 10 miles per hour.

State Board Gives Report On Gas Tax

Richard E. Collins, chairman of the State Board of Equalization, revealed here today that the California gasoline tax based on July business was only 6.9 per cent less than the corresponding figure for the same month of last year, despite the fact that rationing was not then in force.

Announcing completion of the tax assessment of $4,579,364 on the basis of the distribution of 152,645,457 gallons of motor vehicle fuel during July, Collins contrasts this with the tax of $4,920,232 assessed a year ago on 167,007,743 gallons. He pointed out the current figure marks a decline of only $340,868.

CHRISTMAS MAIL MONTH

Major General Frederick Gilbreath, commanding the San Francisco Port of Embarkation, urged today that residents of the San Francisco Bay area mail their Christmas packages to soldiers overseas the first week of "Christmas Mail Month," which started yesterday, September 15.

"If the thousands of persons in the San Francisco Bay area were to put their Christmas packages for servicemen into the mails the week of September 15 to 22," General Gilbreath said, "a goodly part of the load on the facilities of the local postoffice and the local Army postoffice would be lightened, and the way cleared for the more expeditious handling of the tremendous volume of Christmas mail which will be coming into the San Francisco Port of Embarkation from points outside this area.

"Last year more than 5,500,000 pounds of parcel post moved through this port in a 35-day period starting October 1. The volume will be much heavier than that this year in view of the fact that the number of men in overseas bases whose addresses are 'in care of the Postmaster, San Francisco' has increased tremendously in the past year.

"The San Francisco postoffice, under Postmaster William H. McCarthy, and the Army postoffice of the San Francisco Port of Embarkation started preparations last year, as soon as the 1942 rush was over, for the Christmas Mail period of 1943. Those preparations are complete. With expanded facilities, we are ready to handle the anticipated volume and to transport every bit of it to the men in the faraway bases in time for delivery by Christmas Day."

It was the experience of the San Francisco postoffice and the Army postoffice last year, the general said, that the heaviest volume came in the last week of the campaign and in the several days which followed the close of the official mailing period. In one day, November 3, the Army postoffice received 450,000 pounds of parcel post for oversea movement. That was the peak of the rush.

"We were able to get every bit of the mail started on its water ride within 24 hours after its receipt here, and we were able to meet every sailing schedule touching an oversea base before Christmas in the area served by the San Francisco Port of Embarkation," General Gilbreath said. "But it taxed our facilities and those of the San Francisco postoffice to the utmost.

"Consequently, the civilian and the military postoffice forces are anxious to level off the flow of Christmas mail as much as possible.

"The residents of the San Francisco Bay area can contribute to this leveling-off by placing their own packages to servicemen, regardless of whether they are in the Pacific, Alaskan, European, African or other areas, into the mails the first week of 'Christmas Mail Month' which starts September 15."

Officers in charge of the Army postoffice, meantime, urged that persons intending to send out Christmas gifts to servicemen familiarize themselves thoroughly with the simple regulations governing such mailing. The principal regulations call for correct addresses, a limit of 5 pounds to a package, secure tying and wrapping, and avoidance of gifts of inflammable or perishable nature.

While the dimensions of the maximum package acceptable are relatively those of a shoe box, a shoe box itself is not satisfactory, as it crushes easily, the postal authorities pointed out. Boxes made of rigid corrugated paper are far safer containers.

Housing Center Has New Address

In order to give better service to applicants for housing, on Saturday, September 11, the San Mateo County War Housing center moved to 1108 Burlingame avenue, Burlingame. This location is half a block from the railroad station and the bus and car lines.

The critical shortage of all types of accommodations both for couples and for couples with children continues.

"One of our war industries has lost 700 workers in the past five months due to their inability to find decent living quarters. Let us stop this handicap to the war effort. List all vacancies with the War Housing center at once," said Louis Lengfeld, manager.

General Electric Names Sales Mgr.

Of interest to his many West coast friends, is the recent appointment of Alfred C. Sanger as sales manager for the appliance divisions of General Electric company's appliance and merchandise department.

Previous to his promotion, Sanger was manager of small appliances and heating devices for G. E., supervising factory operations which included the General Electric iron factory at Ontario, California, which, like all other of the company's plants, is now engaged entirely in war work.

Sanger is well known on the Pacific coast and only recently visited the General Electric works in Ontario when the "Navy E" award was presented them. He joined G. E. in 1930 as a radio specialist.

Marshall B. Ross will handle the sales activities of the traffic appliance divisions, previously under Sanger's direction.

The fall schedule of activities is now being planned. Mrs. Becker appealed for any mothers who would like to serve as assistant leaders to get in touch with her at DElaware 6251. Such assistance is badly needed as the Brownies number more than twenty members.

MILO'S MARKET DE LUXE

What can I do?

We believe that nearly all Americans are convinced that, with all its drawbacks, a food rationing program is necessary for an equitable distribution of foods. We have only to remember the chaos which existed prior to rationing, when various lines were "bought out" at the stores.

To help make food rationing more workable, each American housewife or purchaser of food for the family unit, should do everything within her power to cooperate with retailers. An understanding of details of the program will do much to aid in daily shopping. Please remember that your food dealer does not make the regulations, but is charged with the responsibilities of carrying out a plan which rationing experts have decided is most helpful to the nation at large.

As Daly City's largest food center, Milo's Market brings you complete shopping service in one big, modern, deluxe market. At the "Top of the Hill" in the center of Daly City's business district, our one-stop convenience can be a real aid in these busy times.

Strongly competitive prices, made possible by our really big-store operations, reign in all departments. Featured are nationally famous brands of staple and fancy groceries at rock-bottom prices; complete selection of all kinds of fresh fish and poultry; and a meat department whose tremendous volume assures a wide choice of cuts and kinds of fresh and cured meats at low prices.

"Gardening" is a pleasure in our enormous section set aside for fresh fruits and vegetables, with racks and racks of every produce item in season. All are daily-fresh, hand-selected from the best at the growers' markets.

America DRIVES to VICTORY!

BATTERIES are a big item in our fight for Victory. That's why car owners are being asked to take care of the one they have. If your battery shows signs of weakness, don't make the mistake of waiting. Have it recharged and inspected by someone who knows how—have it inspected by Mather's!

ABSENTEEISM?

"If this is absenteeism," says Bob, "make the most of it. Gail and I are going to be gone from the store, from Wednesday to Sunday, September 15 to 19, on our first vacation for a long time.

"Our staff will be on hand to care for your wants, from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., and can sell you everything as usual, excepting fresh meats. For five days you'll have to get along on lunch meats, cured meats, quality groceries, fresh vegetables—and all that goes with them.

"We appreciate the patronage of our many customers, and believe they'll understand when we need a little rest from being wartime grocers."
